“Lord give us grateful hearts and make us mindful of the needs of others.”

“The greatest among you must be your servant.
Whoever exalts himself will be humbled;
but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

The parishioners of St. Theresa and Fr. Paul Moody welcome everyone as we gather to worship.

“Heaven and earth seem to merge on the horizon. But where they really meet is in your hearts, when you sanctify your everyday lives.”
 – St. Josemaria Escriva

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
 And let perpetual light shine upon them.
 May they rest in peace. Amen.

Throughout the month of November remember to pray each day for all who have died and for all the souls in purgatory.

Book of Remembrance: We have a Book of Remembrance near the sanctuary in our Church. You can record your deceased loved one's names in it and they will be remembered in prayer during the month of November. This is a cherished custom in the Catholic Church. It helps us to remember that our loved ones are a gift from God and that all Catholics are united by the Holy Spirit in the one Body of Christ.

Veterans Day is a day where a grateful country remembers all who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States. Originally it commemorated the ending of WW I on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, but was extended to honor all who have ever served our country. Our sincere thanks to our veterans and prayers for those currently serving to be safely reunited with their families.

“Do not let a day pass without doing some good in it.”
 – St. Philip Neri.

There will be a Parish Breakfast after the 9:00 am Sunday Mass on November 12. Everyone is invited to attend. All you need to bring is a smile and a desire to get to know your fellow parishioners better. We look forward to seeing you there!

Prayer Requests: We continue to pray for all of our parishioners who are sick and for the people who care for them. Please pray for all of the members of our Armed Forces and for all of our Law Enforcement Officers, especially Deputy Dakota Jarvis and Brian Paridon as they risk their lives to keep us safe.

There are special prayer requests for Cathy Andrews, Stanley and Jadwiga Kuc, Ralph Rowbotham, Jennifer Nason, Mrs. Maria Doniec, Bob and Sonia Burke, Joana Macijauskas, Mrs. Hella Tompkins, Mrs. Ann Ivers, Albina Vysniauskas, Brone and Vida Nakas, Dennis and Jean Sandfort, Maria Antoniewicz, Glen Zanetic, Mrs. Anna Jarzabek, Fr. Andrew Sosnowski, Robert Espinosa, Winifred & Steve Flowers, and Bruce Paridon. Please remember to pray each day for the souls in purgatory and for our fellow parishioners at St. Theresa.

Offertory: We thank our parishioners and guests for their continued generosity.

“If we wish to serve God and love our neighbor well, we must manifest our joy in the service we render to Him and them. Let us open wide our hearts. It is joy which invites us. Press forward and fear nothing.” - St. Katharine Drexel

Duties of civil authorities: Those who exercise authority should do so as a service. "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant." The exercise of authority is measured morally in terms of its divine origin, its reasonable nature and its specific object. No one can command or establish what is contrary to the dignity of persons and the natural law.

The exercise of authority is meant to give outward expression to a just hierarchy of values in order to facilitate the exercise of freedom and responsibility by all. Those in authority should practice distributive justice wisely, taking account of the needs and contribution of each, with a view to harmony and peace. They should take care that the regulations and measures they adopt are not a source of temptation by setting personal interest against that of the community.

Political authorities are obliged to respect the fundamental rights of the human person. They will dispense justice humanely by respecting the rights of everyone, especially of families and the disadvantaged. The political rights attached to citizenship can and should be granted according to the requirements of the common good. They cannot be suspended by public authorities without legitimate and proportionate reasons. Political rights are meant to be exercised for the common good of the nation and the human community. (CCC 2235 - 2237)

“The world calls for and expects from us simplicity of life, the spirit of prayer, charity towards all, especially towards the lowly and the poor, obedience and humility.....Without this mark of holiness, our word will have difficulty in touching the heart of modern man. It risks being vain and sterile.” - St. Pope Paul VI

For the Departed

We give back to you, O God, those whom you gave to us.

You did not lose them when you gave them to us, and we do not lose them by their return to you. Your dear Son has taught us that life is eternal and love cannot die. So death is only a horizon, and a horizon is only the limit of our sight. Open our eyes to see more clearly, and draw us closer to you that we may know that we are nearer to our loved ones, who are with you.

You have told us that you are preparing a place for us; prepare us also for that happy place, that where you are we may also be always, O dear Lord of life and death.

Amen.

(Prayer of William Penn, 1710) `

“God asks little but He gives much.” – St. John Chrysostom
