Szczęśliwej Rocznicy!

We would like to wish Frank and Elizabeth Konefal a Very Happy 64th Wedding Anniversary! Their anniversary is on November 25th. We should congratulate and thank them for being such a visible sign of the enduring power of love between husbands and wives

"I hold you in my heart, for we have shared together God's blessings."

Jerry and Soozi Pate are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Thursday November 28. We wish Jerry and Soozi a Happy Anniversary and a wonderful year to follow! May God continue to bless them, their family, and all those they love.

The flowers decorating the sanctuary have been lovingly donated by Elizabeth and Frank Konefal.

Book of Remembrance: We have a Book of Remembrance near the sanctuary in our Church. You can record your deceased loved ones names in it and they will be remembered in prayer during the month of November. This is a cherished custom in the Catholic Church. It helps us to remember that our loved ones are a gift from God and that all Catholics are united by the Holy Spirit in the one Body of Christ.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And may perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

Throughout the month of November remember to pray each day for all who have died and for all the souls in purgatory.

"Pray with great confidence, with confidence based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ. God is a spring of living water which flows unceasingly into the hearts of those who pray." - St. Louis de Montfort

Prayer Requests: We continue to pray for all of our parishioners who are sick and for the people who care for them. Please pray for all of the members of our Armed Forces, for all of our Law Enforcement Officers, especially Deputy David Zurawska, and firefighters, especially David Shepherd, as they risk their lives to keep us safe.

There are special prayer requests for Julie, Matas Baltus, Steve Bertrand, David Hilty, Brian Paridon, Caroline, Jess, Chris Andrews, Jessica Stephens, Janet Kaufman, Sr. Anna Szostek, Ed Lang, Paul Day, Alvera Seluga, Lidia Kraj, Larry

“He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation: for by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him. He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. He is also the head of the body, the church; “(Col. 1:15-18a)

Christ already reigns through the Church. . . "Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living." Christ's Ascension into heaven signifies his participation, in his humanity, in God's power and authority. Jesus Christ is Lord: he possesses all power in heaven and on earth. He is "far above all rule and authority and power and dominion", for the Father "has put all things under his feet." Christ is Lord of the cosmos and of history. In him human history and indeed all creation are "set forth" and transcendently fulfilled. As Lord, Christ is also head of the Church, which is his Body. Taken up to heaven and glorified after he had thus fully accomplished his mission, Christ dwells on earth in his Church. The redemption is the source of the authority that Christ, by virtue of the Holy Spirit, exercises over the Church. "The kingdom of Christ [is] already present in mystery", "on earth, the seed and the beginning of the kingdom". Since the Ascension God's plan has entered into its fulfillment. We are already at "the last hour". "Already the final age of the world is with us, and the renewal of the world is irrevocably under way; it is even now anticipated in a certain real way, for the Church on earth is endowed already with a sanctity that is real but imperfect." Christ's kingdom already manifests its presence through the miraculous signs that attend its proclamation by the Church. not spare the Church and ushers in the struggles of the last days. It is a time of waiting and watching. [CCC 668 – 670]

We thank our parishioners and guests for their continued generosity.
